it until late in the afternoon. Then it leaked out that Mr. A. F. Walcott, President of the Association, H. G. Crick-more, Secretary, and James Rowe, the starter, were taken in charge by the consta-bles of the Law and Order League, who showed warrants for their arrest upon the charge of keeping a disorderly house.

The gentlemen were taken before a Justice of the Peace at Oceanport, a small village half a mile from the track, where they were released on bail. The incident delayed the first race a few minutes. This shows that the threats of the Law and Order League to raid the track were not vain boasts. It is said that all the bookmakers will be arrested to-

Barely three thousand people were at Monmouth Park to-day. This is a great failing Louisville of from the crowd of yesterday, when nearly thirty thousand people crowded and elbowed each other about the commodious grounds. Edna was last seen alive abortly after 7.30 ast night, when she went to her room in sevey's Hotel, as supposed, to retire. Nothing unusual was noticed in her conduct, and r death is surrounded in mystery. As far as can be learned no one saw her habit of getting up about & A. M., and often took an early morning stroll along the plank walk. It is not known whether she commited suicide, fell into the water accidentally or met death by violence.

Coroner Schaefer had the remains removed to his morgue in Stapleton. The Coroner made a hasty exterior examination of the body, but found no marks of violence. The the condition of her clothing did not indicate that she had been in a struggle.

The Coroner will have an autopsy made to determine the cause of death. An examina-tion of the effects in the woman's room at the hotel failed to throw any light on the mys-tery. She was about thirty-five years of age, dark complexioned, 5 feet 7 inches in height and weighed about 140 pounds. A report was circulated at South Beach this morning that the woman was seen yesterday displaying a roll of bills while buying a glass of soda water. McVey, the proprietor of the hotel wher the woman stopped, said that she paid him two weeks' rent for her room on Saturday. McVey says he did not see her with a large sum of money at any time while she was at including the formal resignation of Charles clothing was found $4.05.
